

Dr. Toby Groves

Dr. Toby Groves is a psychologist, writer and speaker who researches thinking quality and decision-making. He teaches innovative and personalized strategies that can dramatically improve expert judgment and decision-making. Toby has training in forensic psychology and forensic accounting and has presented at more than 500 events for government, academia, and professional associations.